

What 18 Former Apprentice Candidates Really Think of Donald Trump

Even though he told these Apprentice alumni "you're fired," there's still a lot of appreciation for The Donald.

Donald Trump knows what he wants, and he knows how to get it. He does not beat around the bush, and he takes no prisoners. Be that as that may, that is who he is and that's how he became so successful, and that's why I think he's doing well in the political realm — he's a breath of fresh air in a sort of stale and broken system.

I get asked about him on an almost daily basis, and I will tell you this: I would never in my life for two reasons speak ill of Donald Trump. Well, there's more than two, but two good ones are that he gave me the opportunity of a lifetime and not just that — cultivated my success, wrote me letters of recommendation, and was an amazing mentor. For that, I am eternally grateful. That's reason no. 1. And reason no. 2, you have to be really slow in the head to speak out against Donald Trump, because have you seen how he's come out against Rosie O'Donnell? Have you seen how he's attacked Megyn Kelly? Have you seen how he made Jeb Bush look like a cowering little scaredy cat? I want no part of that man's wrath. If you're OK taking on that, good for you but my words would be thanks, Donald Trump, for the great life experience.
